PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

A. Nicholas Coppola is a Boston area native with more than 23 years of experience in the field of Commercial Real Estate. His solid track record and his ability to read the Real Estate market have earned him respect as one of Massachusetts' leading commercial real estate investment advisors.

A results-driven professional, Mr. Coppola has in the past three years alone sold and leased over $82,000,000 of commercial investment property. Nick's success is a net result of his dedication to providing his clients with high quality service with a commitment to obtaining the best results from each and every deal. Those who choose to have Mr. Coppola represent them include investors, landlords, and banks, and his focus on creating long-term relationships fosters a confidence that makes many of his clients repeat customers. Coppola also advises dozens of the most active local and regional real estate investors and developers who rely upon him to identify and analyze opportunities and to help them maximize the value of their properties.

As a CCIM designee and a member of several New England real estate organizations, Mr. Coppola has the expert knowledge to continue as a top producer.

Nick has traveled throughout the country and is an avid Boston professional sports fan, chess player, and family man. He holds a bachelors degree in Marketing and Public Relations from Emerson College. His Professional Affiliations include CCIM Institute and National Association of Realtors (NAR). He is a Licensed Broker in MA, NH and ME as well as a Corporator for Middlesex Savings Bank. He has been active in fundraising and advocating for individuals with developmental disabilities and serves as a mentor for junior brokers and investors.
