Belize, the only English-speaking country in Central America, offers a unique combination of richly rewarding experiences that make it unlike any destination on the planet. Tourists are attracted to and keep returning to the area because of its white beaches, friendly people, and the world class diving, snorkeling, fishing and sailing.

Swim with exotic sea life along the Western Hemisphere's largest barrier reef. Explore the fascinating mysteries of the largest concentration of Maya sites in the region. Hike thousands of acres of unspoiled forest, including one of the only jaguar preserves in the world. Escape to any of the more than 400 tropical islands and three of the Western Hemisphere's four atolls (ring shaped islands formed by coral), surrounded by pristine turquoise waters. Discover the highest waterfall and the most extensive cave system in Central America, and dive the captivating Blue Hole.

The harmonious blend of Maya, Mestizo, Creole, Garifuna, East Indian, Mennonite, Arab and Chinese creates distinctive cultural traditions, including cuisine just waiting for you to discover.

Southern Belize (Toledo District) is known by many as “The Forgotten Land,” Southern Belize’s undiscovered landscapes serve as a threshold for lush rainforests, ancient Maya artifacts, fascinating cultures and enough eco-adventures to impress even the most discerning traveler. Punta Gorda is the gateway to everything from off-shore fishing, to river trips, as well as caving, birding and Maya archaeological sites. Not to mention, some of the nicest people you’ll ever meet.

Western Belize (Orange Walk District) is home to many archaeological sites, like Cahal Pech. Other points of interest include the Butterfly Farm and the Rainforest Medicinal Trails and the Benque House of Culture in Benque Viejo Del Carmen. For the more adventurous traveler, Nachuch Che’em Park is known for its cave tubing and zip-lining offerings. And for everything from Maya temples to caving to hiking to kayaking or horseback riding, San Ignacio is definitely the place to be in Western Belize.

Southeast Coast (Stann Creek District) is a blend of culture and adventure. From the Maya Mountains views to the golden-sand beaches, this region has something for everyone. Dangriga, a laid-back Garifuna seaside community near Hopkins, is a great beach destination and Placencia is known for water activities like kayaking, snorkeling and diving. Inland is full of adventures, like Cockscomb Basin Wildlife Sanctuary, Mayflower Bocawina National Park and Blue Hole National Park. This coast has it all.

Central Belize (Belize and Cayo Districts) is home to the howler monkeys and many rare bird species, Central Belize is perfect for travelers looking to get into the wild bringing together some of the country’s best features, including Maya sites, dense jungles, rushing waterfalls and extensive caves. The Central Coast is also home to Belize City, the cultural and business epicenter of Belize.

Northern Belize (Corozal District) is a destination for those wanting to get closer to Mother Nature, avoid large crowds or experience everything from the archaeological wonders of the Maya sites to exploring the jungles, rainforests and lagoons. If you’re looking to get off the grid, head here.

Belize Reef (Islands) As the largest and most intact reef system within the Northern Hemisphere, the Belize Barrier Reef comprises seven key marine reserve zones. The reef’s crystal blue waters are a haven for its marine community and an enticing exploratory region for SCUBA divers and snorkelers. Discover the over five hundred species of fish, seventy hard coral and thirty six soft coral species among the plenty of aesthetic views both above and below water. In 1996, this reef was inscribed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site for its significant habitats and natural development. Add the cultural appeal of Belize and skilled guides, and you’ve got yourself the dive trip of a lifetime.

TOURISM FACTS

Belize is considered to be the gateway to Central America and top destination for water related adventures due to its proximity to the second largest barrier reef in the world. Tourists are attracted to and keep returning to Belize because of its beautiful beaches, friendly people, world class diving/snorkeling/fishing and its reputation for being known as a laid back, safe, English speaking country. Belize boasts a variety of landscapes including: mountains, jungles, rivers, waterfalls, hundreds of cayes (islands) and rare atolls (ring shaped islands formed by coral).

Tourist arrivals to Belize are heavily increasing with a 43% jump since the year 2000 and a 29% increase between 2010-2015. Overnight arrivals have increased 22.5% from first quarter 2017 to first quarter 2018. Approximately 95% of arrivals into Belize are for leisure travel and with new non-stop flights from the US and Canada, it makes for an easy vacation destination.

AWARDS

In 2013 and 2014 Ambergris Caye won back-to-back Trip Advisor members awards as the “best island” in the world to visit.

The World Travel Awards named Ambergris Caye, Belize as the leading destination in Mexico & Central America for years 2015 and 2016.

Time Magazine top 52 world places to go in 2017.

Currency

Belize currency exchange is extremely easy for United States Dollar conversion. The Belize dollar is locked at $2 Belize = $1 USD. Most accommodations and tours are listed in USD prices, and most restaurants, and shops are listed in BZ$. Nearly everywhere readily accepts USD currency.

Flights

Travel to Belize is now easier than ever as Southwest, American, Delta, and United fly to Belize from major cities across the United States, with a travel time of just 2-5 hours. Canadians too can now enjoy Belize as both WestJet and Air Canada now offer non-stop service from Toronto.

Getting to Caye Caulker is easy because both of Belize's domestic airlines—Tropic Air and Maya Island Air—have hourly flights to the island. It takes only 15 minutes to fly from the international airport in Belize City to Caye Caulker. A water taxi is also available for about $15 USD and takes 60 minutes to travel from the mainland to Caye Caulker.

Language

Belize is a former British commonwealth and adopted English as its official language. While you'll hear familiar words of the English language, a large population of Belizeans, speak an English-based Creole (Belizean Creole or Kriol) during most informal, social and interethnic dialogue.

People

From the moment you arrive in Belize—whether you are an adventure traveler, part of a family trip or in the country for a relaxing beach vacation—Belize people and culture make you feel as welcome and comfortable, like nowhere you've ever visited. In Belize, our traditions and customs are varied and represent more than eight diverse cultures. For generations, the people of Belize have demonstrated a cultural commitment to preserve the country's unique charms. This enduring promise to the land, the waters and you, our visitor, inspires all to achieve a genuine and intimate connection to a variety of extraordinary experiences.

Weather

One of the nicest things about visiting Belize is the weather. With an average yearly temperature of 84°F (29°C), it's always warm, yet comfortable. Coastal sea breezes as well as our jungle and rainforests keep you cool even in the hottest summer months while winters can be cool but never very cold. In short, the climate is pretty much near perfect. Even in winter (November-March) the temperature in Belize rarely falls below 60°F (16°C), while the summer (May-September) is around 86°F (30°C). Humidity is also fairly consistent at around 85 percent.
