San Antonio is commonly known as “the heart of Texas.” Its geographic pin in the American Southwest and South-Central Texas contribute to some of its most valued assets. It serves as the seat of Bexar County and the bank for the San Antonio River. With the Edwards Plateau to the northwest and the Gulf Coastal Plains to the southeast, the city’s terrain is dotted with oak trees, mesquite, and cacti, which thrive under the clear and partly cloudy skies that prevail more than 60 percent of the time. San Antonio has characteristics of other western urban centers in that it has sparsely populated areas and a low-density rate outside of the city.

With nearly 300 years as a city, it is without question that hints of San Antonio’s antiquity seep into its current position as a modern frontier. The evolution of the City as a Spanish trading post into a diverse, multi-sector economy exhibit the City’s capacity to embrace, adapt and succeed in a global environment that continues to advance and expand.

San Antonio’s powerhouse employers support a healthy and diverse economy – a blend of well-established financial services, rapidly growing biomedical and biotech sectors, a booming new energy sphere, a flourishing IT and cybersecurity field and a robust manufacturing sector that produces everything from aircrafts to Toyota trucks. The city’s central location has made it the hub for economies in the South-Central Texas region and Mexico.

San Antonio is the ideal environment for businesses of all sizes. Whether you’re beginning your story, growing your footprint or continuing a thriving enterprise, San Antonio can help cultivate an atmosphere of progress and growth. Not only does the city boast a pro-business environment, decreasing costs through incentives and industrial policies, but San Antonio also offers a low-cost utility portfolio including renewable energy options. It maintains a skilled workforce bursting with vitality, built of professionals younger than the U.S. national average age. These key factors and so many more have provided uniquely beneficial circumstances for companies to include Petco, Oracle, Microsoft, Medtronic, H-E-B, Whataburger, Toyota Motor Manufacturing Texas and more.

San Antonio is an emerging city of the future, making a global impact in a bold, distinctive and particularly inviting manner. Its historic charm and authentic culture are complemented with the sights and sounds of a vibrant city on the move. From entertainment to education; good weather to good value; simply put, San Antonio is the new frontier to make it happen.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interest of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AN AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH — INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction. ● Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - o That the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - o That the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - o Any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS A SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interest of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when the payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
