PROPERTY OVERVIEW

One of the most unique and prestigious buildings in Binghamton. Built in 1876 by famous architect Isaac Perry, who also built the State Capital Building in Albany. This building was featured in the 1991 movie Liebestraum and has been home to many businesses over the past 140+ years ! This is a prestigious location for any office. This is one of the few steel frame buildings left in the United States. One walk through and you know this building was built to last. Centrally located in the heart of Historic Downtown Binghamton. Right at the Chenango Street Roundabout this location enjoys a heavy traffic count, daily average 8,110 per day, as well as heavy foot traffic. This location is neighboring, and walking distance to, all of Downtown Binghamton's Restaurants, Shops and amenities. This is walking distance to the Courthouse, The County Office Building, Security Mutual, The State Office building and City Hall. This location has a walk score of 85. If location is everything then this building has it all.
