PROPERTY OVERVIEW

So many possibilities at an unbelievable price. This office/warehouse complex was once the showplace headquarters for the national Quail Unlimited organization and no expenses were spared. It is in Edgefield County, South Carolina, off Martintown Road, 15 miles from Interstate 20's Exit 1, 10 miles from the City of Edgefield. The complex consists of a 12,000 square foot office building and a 5000 square foot warehouse building on 5 acres of beautifully spaced mature pines. It could serve as an exceptional church retreat, event facility, or youth group summer camp location. Our development company determined that to build a facility such as this today the costs would exceed $2,500,000, making this an exceptional value for the right use. If you have been looking for a church-owned retreat location this may be worth considering. This property is positioned adjacent to approximately 5000 acres of Sumter National Forest that features miles and miles of hiking and biking trails with Lick Fork Lake nearby. We would be happy to schedule a tour of this outstanding property for you to witness it's many attributes.
