City Overview

Vero Beach, Florida

An elegant city located along Florida's Atlantic Coast, Vero Beach is a haven for golf, water sports and fishing. Peaceful beaches, museums, nature tours and a range of hotels make Vero Beach a terrific vacation destination and an important part of the region known as the Treasure Coast.

Vero Beach also offers a fine selection of shops – both downtown and in large shopping malls – and delectable cuisine for all budgets. Also found in Vero Beach are museums, art galleries and many parks, some of which offer access to an enticing network of rivers and inlets

Regional Overview

Indian River County, FL

Indian River County has a friendly, unpretentious atmosphere. Centrally located 70 miles south of the Kennedy Space Center and an hour's drive north of West Palm Beach, the 543 square miles contain 26 miles of unspoiled beaches, groves of renowned Indian River grapefruit, immaculate oceanfront estates and riverfront communities - free from urban sprawl and congestion. Located within a 3-hour drive of 17.9 million potential customers - 90% of Florida's population.

Indian River County, Florida offers the best of both worlds: a desirable location for business and pleasure with a balance that helps build your business in the sun. Those who live, work or visit here find that the communities are safe, modern and loaded with ecological, cultural, educational and technological amenities. Indian River County also offers a cost-competitive place to grow or expand your business.

FECI introduced a proposal for a high speed rail service known as All Aboard Florida, with passenger service between Miami and Orlando with additional stations in Fort Lauderdale and West Palm Beach. The current proposal has 32 trains passing through Indian River County daily with a maximum proposed speed between West Palm and Cocoa at 110 MPH. The project has been the subject of extensive local government discussion since its announcement.

Over the past 20 years, the U. S. Highway No. 1 corridor south of Highway 60 was one of the most popular retail areas of Indian River County. As has been typical of most South Florida cities, growth has expanded westward. Over the past several years the State Road 60 corridor west of the City of Vero Beach has expanded rapidly with new retail and restaurant uses. Two large retail centers, The Outlets of Vero and the Indian River Mall, have opened.
