LOCATION OVERVIEW

In 2006 Pilsen became a National Historic Register District. The neighborhood is a true microcosm reflecting Chicago's greater melting pot of culture and ethnicity. The neighborhood is known as a haven for artists in search of inexpensive studio space and places to display their work. As such, on the east side of Pilsen, you'll find one of Chicago's largest art districts. The neighborhood also houses the National Museum of Mexican Art. Pilsen is for foodies as you drive or walk down busy W. 18th Street you'll find Mexican bakeries, fantastic restaurants, and grocers. Pilsen is a foodie paradise where the latest trendy restaurant sits next to a mom-and-pop joint, both offering authentic tastes. Pilsen is located in 60608 and nearby neighborhoods include University Village and South Loop.
