CITY OF LAKELAND

Lakeland has always been a hub of innovation and progressive ideas. Today, the City continues to thrive as population and business expansions are attracted to this area, the geographic center of Florida. Lakeland's economic base consists of warehouse, transportation and distribution, education, health care, manufacturing and retail.

Lakeland has received the distinction of being on Money Magazine's "Best Place to Live in America" list. In addition, Lakeland is home to Publix Supermarkets, Florida Southern College and is the winter home to the Detroit Tigers.

LAKE HOLLINGSWORTH (0.8 MILES)

Lake Hollingsworth is a lake located near the center of the City of Lakeland, Florida. Its area is 350 acres. Lake Hollingsworth Drive and a path for biking and walking known as the Lake-To-Lake Trail are located along the entire circumference of the lake.

SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY (0.4 MILES)

Southeastern University is a private, liberal arts Christian university in Lakeland. With an emphasis on convenience for all students, the school provides evening and online learning opportunities in addition to their classes scheduled in person during the day.

Listed as one of the top ten fastest-growing private, baccalaureate colleges in the nation, SEU's newly renovated campus sits on 88 acres of land and features state-of-the-art facilities and high-tech classrooms.

FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE (1.2 MILES)

Florida Southern College is located on the north side of the lake, and from the path, an observer can see several of the buildings on campus designed by famed architect Frank Lloyd Wright.

In 2015, the student population at FSC consisted of 2,500 students along with 130 full-time faculty members. The college offers 50 undergraduate majors and pre-professional programs.

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Alex Delannoy was born and raised in Toulouse, France, with a strong drive and burning desire to discover new experiences and knowledge. His travels through Europe and throughout the world have created a great passion for the diversity and culture he experienced.

Alex became a professional paintball player and came to the United States in 2010 when he joined one of the top teams in the league in the Tampa, FL area. After spending a few years with the team, his entrepreneurial spirit drove him to start his own business in Winter Haven, FL called Action Paintball & Laser Tag. The facility included a retail pro-shop, more than 30 trained employees, room for five different onsite activities, and became a thriving business with more than 35,000 players over the years. The business was purchased by an investor in early 2017.

He joined The Ruthvens in 2022 and leads the charge on our brokerage properties and services. He made a successful name for himself as a senior advisor at KW Commercial, where he built a book of commercial real estate business and managed brokerage assets in the Central Florida area for five years. Alex is known for providing results by creating opportunities through analyzing a problem and finding a durable solution by using all resources available. Alex is always looking at new ways to add value and skills, and his experience in his craft and in the community is a big reason he's a trusted resource to head up the brokerage properties division at The Ruthvens.
