Property Overview

Unique opportunity to purchase this historic former rail station circa 1892, lovingly restored by current owners to its' former glory! Proven location is just footsteps away from Foothills Performing Arts Center. The building is ideally equipped for retail, medical/professional or service business opportunities, even a three store mini-mall which would offer current separate heating. Bring your own food establishment ideas as well: all contents and equipment are negotiable. This building must be seen to be appreciated; restoration by quality contractor has blended retaining historical charm with today's modern systems and conveniences. As a destination quality office or medical complex the site offers direct views toward Main Street to the Clarion Hotel, and is just a few steps to city park, banking, and other service and retail shops. This location provides exciting opportunities! Contact Kelly Hall for additional details and tours.
