PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

Ian Duty-Dean earned his degree at the University of Oklahoma in multi-disciplinary studies focused on Construction Science and Finance. Ian began his career in commercial real estate during an internship at the Oklahoma City Urban Renewal (OCURA), a public-private partnership charged with the revitalization of Oklahoma City's urban neighborhoods. The experience and exposure to the industry lead him to becoming a broker at Land Run Commercial. At Land Run, his primary focus was retail leasing in the Oklahoma City metro and tertiary markets. While at Land Run Ian worked on redevelopment projects that helped spur the larger revitalization OKC's Uptown District. Ian joined ADEPT Commercial Real Estate in 2018 as a Senior Advisor, later becoming Director of brokerage sales and leasing. While at ADEPT Ian brokered deals in retail, office, industrial, multi-family and land. In 2023 he founded The Greyhound Group, a full-service commercial real estate firm offering brokerage, development and property management services. Ian brings a wealth of knowledge; by focusing on the mutual success of tenants and landlords, he positions assets to maximize their value, retains and attracts high quality tenants.
