ZOO ATLANTA

Zoo Atlanta is an Association of Zoos and Aquariums accredited zoological park in Atlanta, Georgia. The zoo first opened its doors in 1889 and now more than 125 years removed from its historical origins, Zoo Atlanta has evolved from a quaint picnic stop where people visited wild animals to a conservation organization seeking to engage the public in the lives of its animal ambassadors and the preservation of their counterparts in the wild.

The Atlanta BeltLine is a sustainable redevelopment project that provides a network of public parks, multi-use trails and transit along a historic 22-mile railroad corridor circling downtown and connecting many neighborhoods directly to each other.

THE BEACON

The Beacon project reshaped six former industrial buildings into a keystone of nine walkable acres ideal for family fun, date nights or even errand runs.

Its 110,000 square feet of restaurants and bars, a coffee shop, a bakery, a gourmet market, retail shopping, daycare, medical and wellness centers and the funky Artist's Cove create a layered neighborhood experience that will satisfy patrons' daytime and evening needs and desires.

The Cellairis Amphitheatre at Lakewood is a concert venue located in Atlanta, which opened in 1989. The amphitheatre seats 18,920. It was designed to offer a state-of-theart musical experience for both music fans and artists. The venue was built specifically for popular music.

THE EASTERN

The Eastern is a state-ofthe art venue in the Dairies complex in the Reynoldstown neighborhood of Atlanta, located right off of the Atlanta Beltline. The venue boasts a multi-tiered floorplan which offers unrivaled sight lines, top of the line sound and lights, spacious floorplan, and rooftop which includes a covered performance space, bar, restaurant and open-air seating. The Eastern is not only a premiere concert facility, but also serves as a unique special event space for corporate meetings and other functions, award shows, galas, weddings, receptions, launch parties, trade shows, private events and more.

The Krog District is a mixeduse collection of landmark properties and gathering spaces adjacent to the BeltLine Eastside Trail, a completed threemile segment of the planned 22-mile pedestrian greenway that runs through Atlanta's Inman Park and Old Fourth Ward.

Including Krog Street Market, Atlanta Stove Works, and SPX Alley, the comprehensive redevelopment and adaptive re-use project adds more dynamic retail and creative office space to the area, while restoring and enhancing the existing properties.

EAST ATLANTA VILLAGE

East Atlanta Village (EAV) is a neighborhood located in the southeastern part of Atlanta, Georgia. It's known for its vibrant and eclectic atmosphere, unique culture, and strong sense of community. EAV has become a popular destination for both residents and visitors due to its diverse offerings and engaging environment.

EAV is home to a thriving artistic and cultural community. The neighborhood is known for its support of local artists, musicians, and creatives, and this is evident in the numerous art galleries, live music venues, and street art that can be found throughout the area. The neighborhood offers a wide range of dining options, from casual cafes to upscale restaurants, serving various cuisines. EAV is also renowned for its dynamic nightlife, with a variety of bars, pubs, and live music venues that cater to different tastes. Despite being part of a major city, East Atlanta Village has a strong sense of community. Residents often participate in local events, markets, and festivals that foster a close-knit neighborhood feeling. The neighborhood offers a diverse range of housing options, including historic homes, bungalows, modern apartments, and condominiums. This variety accommodates different preferences and lifestyles. While EAV maintains its own distinct identity, it's conveniently located near downtown Atlanta, providing easy access to the city's amenities, cultural attractions, and job opportunities.
